

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

About the candidate requirements

Q: Why is there a limit on the nationalities for this programme?

This programme is sponsored by UNICEF's Regional Office for East Asia & Pacific, hence there is a focus on supporting young changemakers from the Asia Pacific region relating to our work.

Q: Does my solution need to use technology?

Not necessarily, but we are also looking for technology based solution and you may use it if needed.

About the benefits

Q: I need a visa to travel to Singapore, will this be covered?

UNICEF can provide a letter to support visa applications and can cover the visa application fees. However, we cannot guarantee the visa will be granted; this decision is taken by the Singapore Embassy in the country where you are applying.

Q: What is the Young Water Leaders Summit?

Please scan or click the QR code to access more information.

Q: Where will the Summit take place?

In Singapore. You can visit the SIWW site for more information here.

Q: What are the mentoring sessions about?

Each Changemaker will be asked to have 2 sessions with a mentor to help them shape their idea into a concrete presentation and pitch. The sessions will be conducted online and in English and will each be about 1-1.5 hours in length. The mentor will also provide feedback and guidance on the next steps and support opportunities to connect with other industry leaders.

Q: Will UNICEF fund my idea?

The purpose of this event is to support young people to attend the Young Water Leaders Summit, and to give them a platform to present their idea for feedback from UNICEF and other experts. There is no guarantee of additional funding from UNICEF at this time.

About the application process

Q: When will I hear if my application is successful?

We aim to contact all successful candidates by end of April 2020.

Q: I cannot access the application form, what should I do?

Please email apgautam@unicef.org to receive a copy of the form if you have problems accessing the online form.

Q: I really want to apply, but I cannot travel to Singapore in July. What should I do?

You are welcome to submit your application, in case there are future opportunities with UNICEF. Please mention that you are not available in July. However, we will not be able to select you for this round of WASH Young Changemakers.
